DEMS TRY TO BLOCK CUT IN FOREIGN AID

Powerful Group of Law-makers Headed by Senator Taft Lead Fight For Reduction

LUCAS IS CONFIDENT

Washington, March 25—(AP)—Democratic leaders tightened ranks in the senate today to block any move to cut the $5,580,000,000 European Recovery Program.

They faced a powerful group of lawmakers headed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who think western Europe can get along with from one to three billions less than the administration has asked for the Marshall Plan's second year.

Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill.) was confident the leadership would be able to defeat any reduction move in a vote today.

The committee approved a bill to let the Economic Cooperation Administration spend $1,150,000,000 during the three months starting April 3, $4,280,000,000 for the 12 months following, and $150,000,000 in contracts beyond June 1950.

This authorizes the amount to be spent, but the cash must be provided by appropriation.

Unlike the case a year ago, the issue before the senate now is not whether the recovery program will be carried on. The question is how much should be spent for it in the next 15 months.

Taft argued yesterday that shipments to Europe will keep going even if congress doesn't give ECA any money until July 1.

He said ECA actually has spent only $2,916,000,000 out of the $5,580,000,000 provided last year. Because of this he questioned the need for the $1,150,000,000 asked for the next three months.

New Shakeup In Russian Leaders

Moscow, March 25—(AP)—The shakeup of Russian leadership gave the Soviet Union a new chief today—Marshall Alexander M. Vasilevsky, brilliant warrior and tactician.

As in other recent shifts, the president of the Supreme Soviet announced without explanation that Vasilevsky was taking over from Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin as minister of armed forces of the Soviet Union, the highest military post in the USSR.

(Six portions of Gilmore's story, telephoned to London from Moscow, are missing, presumably held up by the Soviet censor.)

Vasilevsky, personally well known to Gen. Eisenhower and British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, ran up an impressive record in World War II.

He sat among the top half-dozen members of the supreme command of the war and engineer-whose mapped strategy in the critical Russian drive to Berlin.

Word of the new shift came in two one sentence announcements by the president broadcast early this morning by Moscow radio and published in the morning newspapers which appeared later.

PROUD MOTHER

Altoona, March 25—(AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Moreau of Charleroi was one of the proudest mothers in Pennsylvania today. She had reason to be. Her son, Larry, 17, a senior at Charleroi high, won the American Legion's regional oratorical contest last night at Bellwood high school near here.

McKEAN PRIEST DIES

Erie, March 25—(AP)—Funeral services will be held Monday for the Rev. Alois Joseph Duerling, 61, pastor of St. Francis Xavier church at nearby McKean and died yesterday. He formerly served a pastorate at Emmittont.

Silence And Shakespeare Winners Of Academy Awards

Hollywood, March 25—(AP)—Silence and Shakespeare won academy awards for Jane Wyman and Sir Laurence Olivier last night.

Miss Wyman, 35-year-old graduate of B pictures, was named best actress of 1948 for playing the raped deaf-mute in "Johnny Belinda." Olivier was given Hollywood's highest honor for his performance as "Hamlet." His British production was also named the best picture of the year, marking the first time the award has been handed across the sea.

It was also a great night for the Hustons. Son John walked off with two gold statuettes for his writing and direction of "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre." Father Walter sprinted down the aisle to claim his best supporting actor award as the wily prospector in the same film.

Claire Trevor was selected the best supporting actress as the drunken gun-noll in "Key Largo," also directed by John Huston. Miss Wyman, formerly Sarah Jane Fols of St. Joseph, Mo., ac-

Living Costs Almost At Levels Year Ago

Washington, March 25—(AP)—Living costs have slipped back almost to where they were at the start of 1948.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported last night that a 1.1 per cent drop in its consumers price index between January 15 and February 15 brought the cost of living to within 0.9 per cent of the figure for a year ago.

It marked the fifth month in a row during which there was a drop in the price of things people buy. And it was one of the sharpest drops for one month since the war.

The index is based on a comparison between present prices and those of the 1935-1939 period in 56 cities.

New Veterans Pension Bill Is Introduced

Washington, March 25—(AP)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) today introduced a new veterans' pension bill limited to ex-servicemen of World War One. He told the house he hopes to bring it to the floor in a short time.

The measure calls for $72 a month pensions to veterans of the 1917-18 war when they reach age 65 provided their income does not exceed $2,000 a year if unmarried, or $3,000 if married, or with dependents.

Rankin offered this bill less than 24 hours after the house knocked in the head his previous measure to pension veterans of both World Wars I and II.

That measure proposed $80 a month pensions. By a one-vote margin, 208 to 207, the house yesterday shelved it by sending it back to committee.

Rankin told the house he was introducing the new bill "at the request of one of the great veterans organizations, and also at the suggestion of many members of the (veterans) committee."

The new bill embodies some of the amendments tacked onto the measure that was killed yesterday, including the lower $72 figure and the financial needs proviso.

Even before Rankin came up with his new bill, many lawmakers had declined to pronounce yesterday's house action as meaning the end of pensions legislation in this session of congress.

However, veterans men were happy, however to have shelved the original bill.

When the showdown came, 151 Democrats and 57 Republicans teamed up against the bill. For it were 100 Democrats, 106 Republicans, and one American-Laborite. Total: 208 against, 207 for.

Return-to-Work Order Ends Tension In The Coal Fields

Pittsburgh, March 25—(AP)—The tension was off in the coal fields today.

It was off, too, in industries—such as steel—which depend on coal for their operations. It was off among employees of coal-carrying railroads, among river workers who transport coal in barges.

For John L. Lewis had ordered his miners to return to the pits next Monday, ending a two-week work stoppage of 463,000 members of the United Mine Workers in pits east of the Mississippi.

A fear had been lurking almost everywhere, despite denial by UMW leaders, that the strike would not end at the close of the two-week period, called as a memorial to men killed and injured in the mines last year.

The fear had become pronounced after the U. S. senate confirmed appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, since Lewis had announced the strike also was a protest against Dr. Boyd's nomination to the post.

Now the fear was lifted. The reaction was almost immediate. The Chesapeake & Ohio, a coal-carrying railroad, announced that 7,000 to 8,000 employees now on furlough would return to work by April 2 end of the first week of resumed work in the mines. The B. & O. had furloughed a total of about 10,000 workers. It did not explain the status of men not to be called back by April 2.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, also an important coal carrier, said all of the 8,500 shop workers it had furloughed during the coal strike, will be back on the job by April 4.

In the coal fields, the men welcomed the return to work.

The current contract act of the miners will expire June 30. Miners are scheduled to be idle during their annual 10-day paid vacation, starting June 25.

Special awards went to Ivan Jandi of "The Search" for the best juvenile performance; Walter Wanger for "Joan of Arc"; Jerry Wald for consistently high quality production; the French "Monsieur Vincent" was named the best foreign language film.

The event was the fastest and smallest in the academy's 21-year history. The awards were handed out in cafeteria style at the academy's own theater, before an audience of 950, mostly press and nominees.

AXIS SALLY GIVEN TEN TO THIRTY YEARS

48-Year-Old Maine-Born Woman, Convicted of Treason, Gets Term In Prison

LOSES CITIZENSHIP

Washington, March 25—(AP)—Mildred E. (Axis Sally) Gillars today was sentenced to 10 to 30 years in prison for treason.

Federal Judge Edward M. Curran also fined her $10,000.

Loss of citizenship is automatic on conviction of treason.

Miss Gillars, 48-year-old Maine-born woman, was convicted March 10. Sentence was delayed until her attorneys could argue motions for a new trial.

Just before passing sentence, Judge Curran denied these motions. James J. Laughlin, attorney for Miss Gillars, served notice of an appeal. He told reporters the case would be fought up to the supreme court.

Miss Gillars broadcast the "Axis Sally" programs for the Nazi radio during the war. Her treason conviction was based on the broadcast of one propaganda drama called "Vision of Invasion."

Before passing sentence, Judge Curran remarked that the trial evidence showed that Miss Gillars did not take part in high level Nazi propaganda policy conferences as was the case of Douglas Chandler and Robert Henry Best.

Chandler and Best were other Americans who gave propaganda aid to the Germans. They were tried for treason at Boston and sentenced to life.

"You are now going on 49, is that correct?" Judge Curran asked. "Yes," Miss Gillars replied.

The judge then pronounced the sentence.

First, Curran, after denying the motion for a new trial, directed that Miss Gillars stand up. He asked her if she cared to say anything, explaining that she did not have to do so.

She immediately launched into a long statement which the judge called an argument.

He said he did not want her to make an argument, commenting that her attorney, James J. Laughlin, already had done that.

She said several times "I don't understand" how the jury reached its verdict of guilty.

Miss Gillars was convicted of one of the eight alleged treasonable acts on which the government offered evidence. No evidence was presented on two others set forth in the indictment.

The "Vision of Invasion" was broadcast by the Nazis a month before the trial.

Picketing Promised Against Meeting Of "World Peace" Conference In New York

Ironing Out Differences In Rent Bill

Washington, March 25—(AP)—Senate and house conferees tackle the job today of ironing out "home rule" and other differences between the separate rent bills passed by the two branches of congress.

Hanging over the conference group is the expiration of the present rent control law next Thursday, March 31.

The house bill would continue controls 15 months. The senate measure calls for a 12-to 15-month extension.

But there are sharper differences.

For example, the senate bill lets states, cities and towns junk federal rent curbs at any time, provided the governor approves. However, a state legislature could pass a decontrol measure over the governor's veto.

The house bill, on the other hand, allows states, counties, cities and towns to remove controls, and it makes no provision for approval by the governor.

Here is another main difference: The house bill requires the federal housing expediter to fix rent ceilings at a level to guarantee landlords a "reasonable return on the reasonable value" of their property.

In lieu of that, the senate measure allows some rent increases to 10 per cent in two steps. One five per cent increase could be put into effect October 1, 1949.

A second for the same amount could be charged April 1, 1950. But in no case could the cumulative increase boost rents more than 15 per cent above the level of June 30, 1947, the base for figuring both hikes.

The house bill extends rent controls to flat 15 months—through June 30, 1950, with no strings except the local option decontrol provision.

The senate bill provides for a straight 12-month continuance, and for an additional three months of protection for tenants who want it.

BILL TO AVERT GAS WARS IS SUBMITTED

Harrisburg, March 25—(AP)—Gasoline wars would be outlawed in Pennsylvania under legislation before the general assembly today.

Sen. Samuel G. Neff (D-Beaver) offered a measure yesterday which would impose heavy fines on anyone selling gasoline at a reduced price with intent to injure a competitor.

Neff's bill is aimed at preventing unfair discrimination in the oil industry in the commonwealth. It also cracks down on filling station operators who would seek to harm a competitor's business by offering gifts or premiums.

The bill also prohibits discrimination or unfair practices in the wholesale end of the oil industry.

Violators of the proposed new law would face a fine of $5,000 or a year in prison, or both.

Chiang Group Holding Onto Rich Assets

Nanking, March 25—(AP)—Reliable official quarters said today the hard pressed Nanking government was being denied about $100,000,000 in treasury funds held by retired President Chiang Kai-shek's loyal subordinates.

Privately Chinese officials say Chiang controls nearly a third of the government's hard specie assets.

What in other countries promptly would become something of a major scandal has been held back for two reasons:

1. Fear of Chiang, who still controls much of the Nationalist army and the secret police.

2. In "face" conscious China, officials are reluctant to say openly what they are complaining about bitterly in private. They say an attempt is being made to keep up the fiction of a United Nationalist force. They do not accuse Chiang of holding back a portion of treasury funds for his personal gains. They say it is merely a stake in the game of power politics that divides Nationalist China.

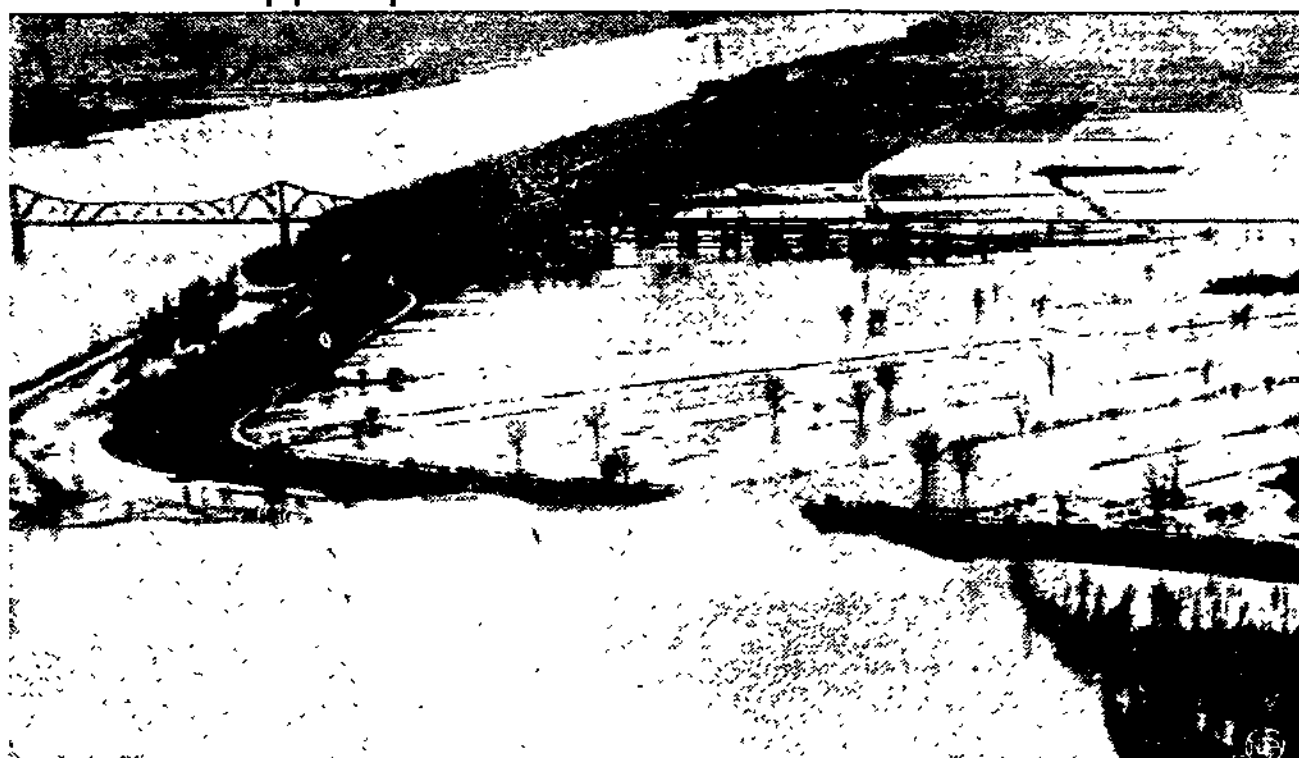

If expected peace talks with the Communists fail, the Nationalist group with control of the major part of assets and the army will be ahead in the scramble for power in south China.

Government officials are confronted with a desperate economic situation and are trying to persuade Chiang to release these funds.

CABINET MEETS

Washington, March 25—(AP)—President Truman met with his cabinet for 15 minutes today—one of the briefest sessions on record. Members said afterwards that no important problems were taken up.

Mississippi Spreads Ruin Over Delta Plantations

Near Baton Rouge, La., the Mississippi River tore a 700-foot gap in its levee and spread ruin over thousands of rich delta plantation acres. Some 2000 residents fled to safety as the waters inundated 25 square miles and threatened the little town of Port Allen, La. The bridge at upper left is on U. S. Highway 190, which was covered by three feet of water at some points.

Disgruntled Taxpayer Hurls Brick and Note

Beaver Falls, Mar. 25—(AP)—Police today searched for the person who hurled a brick and a note through the glass door of the delinquent tax notices sent to Beaver Falls residents behind in payments of the school board's $5 a year per capita tax.

The almost illegible note tied to the brick said: "If you don't stop sending out notices I am going to kill you."

Police said it apparently referred to delinquent tax notices sent to Beaver Falls residents behind in payments of the school board's $5 a year per capita tax.

Soldiers Labor To Block Levee Break

Baton Rouge, La., March 25—(AP)—Bulldozers, laborers and National Guardsmen are battling to block a levee break where the swift, muddy Mississippi is churning through.

Only the fact the mighty stream is at low level prevented disaster, said residents in the flood zone.

Nicholas Balovich, superintendent of U. S. district engineers, said the swift flowing gap should be closed sometime today.

Slowly spreading waters seeped over the thinly populated sugar cane country after the break yesterday morning.

The section affected is on the west side of the river across from Baton Rouge. A low section of about 10 square miles was under two to three feet of water.

About 1,500 residents of the little town of Port Allen, directly in the flood path, appeared worried. A railroad roadbed, bolstered by a hastily mounted dirt dike on a plantation, spared the town for the moment.

Mercer Representative Heard In An Interesting Talk Here

Congressman Carroll D. Kearns, representing the 28th district, as guest speaker at the weekly dinner of the Conewago club, provided one of the most interesting programs that the members have had the pleasure of listening to for a long time when he delivered an address last evening on the subject "Experiences of a Member of the Labor Committee in the United States House of Representatives." Before his appearance at the club Rep. Kearns was interviewed by LeRoy Schneek over Station WNAE.

Rep. Kearns and two secretaries did not arrive in Warren until late afternoon, the congressman having remained in Washington until after lunch so that he would be present to vote on the Rankin veterans' pension bill. He flew from the capital to Erie, and made the trip from the Lake City to Warren by automobile.

During his talk Mr. Kearns discussed much of the legislation currently pending in congress, and particularly the Lesinski wage and hour bill, one of the measures that had aroused considerable controversy among the lawmakers. Rep. Kearns is a member of the Legislative and Labor committee of congress, and dwelt at length on the activities of this particular group.

Among other rather startling statements made by the speaker was a prediction that the Taft-Hartley bill may not be repealed and he seemed quite definite in his opinion that the congress will not re-enact the Wagner Labor Relations bill.

Rep. Kearns devoted considerable time on the subject of Communism and the acute danger facing the country through pressure being applied by this group to put their ideas across in this country. On this subject he said among other things, "If good Americans would spend half as much time and half the effort to support their American heritage, as the Reds are spending on promoting Communism."

Efforts To Limit Local Tax Authority Bogs In Assembly

Harrisburg, March 25—(AP)—Efforts to limit the taxing authority of communities bogged down temporarily today in the general assembly.

The senate local government committee has studied sweeping proposals to amend the 1947 local tax law at three closed sessions without reaching any decisions. A fourth meeting is slated for next Tuesday.

Sen. George B. Stevenson (R-Clinton), co-sponsor of the legislation and committee chairman, expressed confidence that eventually the bill would be reported out, much in the same form as it was introduced several weeks ago.

But other sources said so many other proposals for changes have been advanced that opponents of the 1947 tax law in its present form are growing fearful that the possibility of making major changes may be endangered.

House Republican leaders, meanwhile, are marking time on the whole question.

Speaker Herbert P. Sorel said that so far no policy on any question involving the local tax law has been laid down in the lower branch.

The senate measure would bar entirely local taxes on natural resources, farm or manufactured products, or the earned income of non-residents of communities imposing wage taxes. In addition, ceilings would be placed on such local levies as amusement, per capita, mercantile and wage taxes.

Administration forces, meanwhile, pressed for action next week on two more major planks in Duff's program—housing and fair employment practice commission.

The house state government committee will receive amendments to the administration housing program.

Members of the senate judiciary committee at the same time took home copies of the administration's FEPC bill for study in advance of a second committee meeting on the controversial problem next Wednesday, March 30.

Truman And Congress To Get Chummy

Washington, March 25—(AP)—President Truman may play host next month at an informal party for new members of the house and senate, as part of his campaign to get chummy with congress.

Plans for such a party are being discussed by some of the president's advisers, it was disclosed today. The latching was hung out at his White House office for lawmakers who want to talk over their problems with the president.

Mr. Truman disclosed at his news conference yesterday that during the rest of March and all of April he will be seeing many legislators.

In this connection, the president said he had cancelled two New York talks. One was to have been at the cornerstone dedication of the United Nations building April 10 and the other at a testimonial dinner for Dr. Chaim Weizmann, head of the new state of Israel, April 23.

The president said he will be working from daylight to dark having interviews and getting his desk cleaned of the things that piled up while he was vacationing in Florida.

The president's decision to stick close to home for a while pleased his legislative leaders.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, told reporters he thinks it "an excellent move," adding: "My opinion is that the closer the chief executive is to the congress, the better it is for his program and the country as a whole."

As a part of this new chummy attitude the president's friends hope he and Vice President Barkley can get together with many of the 117 new members of the house and 19 new senators early in April.

PITTSBURGH FIRES

Pittsburgh, March 25—(AP)—Damage estimates today totaled nearly $20,000 in two fires in the Pittsburgh district yesterday.

In nearby McKees Rocks, flames did $15,000 damage to the Park Palace Bowling alleys. Smoke inhalation required first aid for three firemen and a fourth was hospitalized.

On the northside, firemen carried Mrs. Mary Kelly, 24, and her son, 2, down a ladder when a fire in a dress shop below their apartment blocked the exit.

COMMUNISTIC OUTLET

New York, March 25—(AP)—Poes of the "World Peace" conference began a mass picketing demonstration outside the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel today at the new foreign delegates started a new conference inside.

Nearly 2,000 persons, gathered in Park Avenue, looked on as 150 men and women began their march of protest against the controversial Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace, which the State Department has labeled a "sounding board for Communist propaganda."

The marchers carried draped flags of countries now behind the iron curtain and signs protesting the imprisonment of Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary. Some wore colorful costumes of their native European lands.

One hundred policemen were on hand, but there was no disorder. One high police official remarked that the best thing that could happen would be that the pickets would police themselves and there would be no need for police.

Delegates to the conference looked neither to the right or left as they entered the Park Avenue entrance to the hotel. The sponsors of the conference had asked police to protect delegates from possible interference in attending the three-day sessions beginning tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria.

As the purpose of the three-day conclave, described by the State Department as an outlet for Communist propaganda, is to seek means for furthering international cooperation.

Noting unofficial reports that "unrestricted picketing" would be permitted, the sponsoring group—the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions—wired Police Commissioner William P. O'Brien:

"We fully respect the right of free assembly but we also insist that you use the full authority of your office to assure that the thousands of distinguished citizens as well as the renowned artists and scientists who are the guests of our country will be able to attend the sessions of the conference without interference."

The message, signed by O. John Rogge, former assistant U. S. attorney general and now head of the council's executive committee.

A heavy police guard has been ordered for the opening dinner tonight at which artists and scientists from a dozen or more nations will be honor guests.

Opponents plan to start protest demonstrations several hours earlier.

A Catholic group said it is arranging for a mobile first aid station in the area because "the number of persons protesting this meeting will be extremely large."

Police set no specific limit on the number of pickets. Organizers have predicted 10,000 to 20,000. However, police said sidewalks would be kept sufficiently clear to allow pedestrians to pass.

As the controversy over the meeting swirled to new heights, conflicting reports were given out concerning resignations of several conference sponsors.

The Americans for Intellectual Freedom, set up to protest the meeting, reported yesterday eight sponsors had withdrawn, but five of them later denied it.

Those denying the A. I. F. report that they had withdrawn were Rexford Guy Tugwell, the U.S. (Turn to Page Eight)

Olivia DeHavilland & Mark Stevens
in
"THE SNAKE PIT"
at the Library Theatre Sunday
Monday and Tuesday

Darryl F. Zanuck's presentation of "The Snake Pit," which opens Sunday-Monday-Tuesday at the Library Theatre, is a motion picture that is destined to rank as one of Hollywood's finest efforts.
Based on Mary Jane Ward's best-selling novel, the film is a realistic portrayal of a compelling love story... an emotional drama on a rare and pregnant theme.

"The Snake Pit" is great entertainment. For in addition to the love story, there is pathos, sympathy, understanding and emotion. It has all these, plus humor and faith, the striving for security and mental calm which combine into one all-encompassing, beautifully produced motion picture.

Olivia de Havilland's performance as Virginia is brilliant. It is a portrayal that has fire, force and compelling drive, marking her as the screen's outstanding dramatic actress. Her complete mastery of the demanding role marks a climax to her distinguished career.

Leo Genn is perfectly cast as the kindly and idealistic Dr. Kik, while Mark Stevens contributes his finest work to date as Miss de Havilland's understanding husband, Celeste Holm, as a friend of Olivia, contributes a compelling portrayal while Glenn Langan turns in still another smooth and convincing performance.

Man Brought Here After Causing Stir

Franklin, Mar. 25—Lester Baker, 42, was taken to Warren State hospital Thursday afternoon by Sheriff Cunningham and two deputies after two physicians reported he was insane and Judge McCracken issued a commitment.

That ride climaxed a night and a day of violent commotion which police said Baker caused.

First he shot a police officer with a .22 caliber rifle. Then when he was forced out of his house by a barrage of tear gas grenades, he plunged through a closed second story window to a low porch roof.

As he was being taken away his house began burning. A container of gasoline was evidently set on fire by the grenades.

All that occurred between 7 and 8:30 p. m. Wednesday. He suffered a few scratches and after treatment was committed to the Venango county jail.

There he was very violent, being termed by jailers as the "worst prisoner we've ever had." He raged through the night and well into the day, declaring he would "shoot any person who tried to get me."

Restraints were placed on him and he was taken to North Warren without further trouble, but county authorities were glad to get him off their hands.

Baker suffered a head injury six or seven months ago when a plank fell on him in a local industrial plant. He was slow in recovering from the blow and was taken to Cleveland Clinic on Tuesday. While enroute to Franklin after a check-up indicated the necessity of hospitalizing him, he escaped from the bus at Warren, O.

A series of circumstances apparently delayed obtaining commitment papers, with the result that Baker was given free rein to his desire to retaliate against imagined persecution.

Harley Lyttle, the patrolman struck by the hollow-nosed bullet, suffered only a flesh wound and was back on duty. The bullet penetrated a heavy leather belt first, before cutting his right side, Lt. Edward Bergin said.

The pot-shot was taken at the policeman as he was approaching the house with two others to take Baker into custody. He saw the pointed rifle in time to jump to one side.

Youngsville Fire Meeting Well Attended

A record turnout of 95 district fire-fighters attended the March meeting of the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association meeting at the Youngsville firehall last night.

Highlight of the program was the presentation of certificates to firemen who completed the fire fighters' training school held for the past several months under sponsorship of the association.

The instructor for the course, Tom Shuffstall, fire chief at Rocky Grove, was presented a brief case in appreciation of his services. Other honored guests at the meeting included F. C. Ostergard, of Warren, past president of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Association and a member of the State Fire School Advisory Board; and Edgar A. Spatz, of the fire training committee of the State Department of Public Instruction.

The Kinzua Volunteer Fire Department, which recently purchased a truck, was welcomed to membership in the county association.

At the close of the evening the Youngsville Fire Department served apple pie and cheese, and doughnuts and coffee.

Next meeting of the County Association will be held at North Warren on April 13.

Play Cast Is Entertained By Optimists

The Warren Optimist Club last night was host to 130 persons at a buffet supper and dance in the YWC. The club's recent stage show, "Headin' Hollywood."

Members of the club prepared and served the supper, but wisely leaned on the culinary ability of Milady for the cakes for dessert.

An informal program of both round and square dancing was enjoyed, with music being furnished by a string ensemble.

Club officers praised the cast for making the show a great success, and extended their thanks and appreciation to all who took part, or helped in the stage work, ticket sales and publicity.

The committee in charge of the party included Bob Garrison, chairman, Carlyle Morley and Walter Beecher.

The club will use the proceeds of the show for boys' work.

Russell Firemen Planning Benefits

Word comes from the Russell Volunteer Fire Department that its members have plans all lined up for two nice benefit affairs, the first a dance, the second an old-fashioned pancake supper.

The dance will be held in the fire hall tomorrow night, with the Coon Hunters providing the music for dancing which will get under way at nine o'clock. The evening's entertainment schedule also calls for the serving of refreshments.

The supper, pancakes and sausage and lots of other good things is scheduled for one week from Saturday, April 2, with serving from 5:00 until 8:30 o'clock.

In 1910 the average American ate 195 pounds of potatoes. In 1948 the potato's popularity shipped to about 118 pounds per person, according to the Department of Agriculture.

The trick in making hash brown potatoes is to allow them fry over low heat, without stirring until brown on the bottom. They may then be turned with two spatulas and the other side browned.

WORLD RELIEF SUNDAY 1949

By the Burgess of Warren, Pa.
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the churches of America have united in one simultaneous offering for world relief on Sunday morning, March 27, 1949; and
WHEREAS every American has an inescapable obligation to aid in relief and rehabilitation of all less fortunate people; and
WHEREAS this united action in America will greatly strengthen the ministry of our churches overseas and will bring new hope to millions of people;

Now, THEREFORE, I, William F. Crossett, Burgess of Warren, Pa., do hereby designate Sunday, March 27, 1949, as World Relief Sunday; and I invite all Americans to participate in the observance of this day through their churches or any church.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Warren to be affixed.
DONE at Warren this 23rd day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty nine.

WILLIAM F. CROSSETT

Recently I reached my 38th birthday—and with no sense of victory. After 35 a man celebrates a birthday with the morbid pleasure of a small boy picking at a scab on his knee.

Just for the fun of it I sat down and figured out some of the things I didn't know. It was an amazing list—amazing that a man could live so long and learn so little.

The man of the future will probably grow to know more and more about less and less. Until finally he will be able to go through life by just saying "ugh." ("That's about all you say around the house now on most days, rover boy," said my wife).

Here were some of the things I couldn't—and still can't do: Drive a motor car. (You'd be surprised how many people can't). Screw in a light bulb in less than ten minutes.

Fix an electric socket, or repair a gadget of any kind.

Tune in a television set or operate a record-changer phonograph.

Sew on a button. Play any card game except "Old Maid." I also can't play chess, dominoes or assemble a cut-out picture puzzle.

Identify any bone in the human body with certainty except the femur. (The only reason I know this is that a friend of mine broke his, and told me where it was.)

Recognize any flower by name except the rose, or any trees except the elm and the oak.

Build anything, including a doghouse, although I have spent some of the best years of my life in these structures.

Tell the music of any composer except Stephen Foster.

Play a musical instrument or speak a foreign language.

All of these inabilities leave me feeling rather useless and helpless. And yet I think the average man everywhere can compile a similar list of his own.

And the changes come faster and faster. The citizen doesn't understand the atom. But he sure does feel like one—an atom circling in an unknown orbit.

WORLD RELIEF SUNDAY

Over 76,000 churches representing every major Christian denomination and communion have united to take one simultaneous offering for world relief at church services on Sunday, according to a joint statement issued from New York City on Friday, February 25, by Bishop John S. Stamm, president of Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; Mrs. Harper Sibley, president, United Council of Church Women; Mrs. Fred W. Ramsey, executive vice president, Church World Service, and Dr. Winn Fairfield, chairman of the Secretariat Council, Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

Among the major denominations and communions participating in this one great offering on Sunday, March 7, are the Northern Baptist Convention; Southern Baptist Convention; Church of the Brethren; Congregational Christian Church; Disciples of Christ; Evangelical United Brethren; Evangelical and Reformed church; Friends (Year Meeting); National Lutheran Council; Methodist church; United Presbyterian Church; Presbyterian church in the U. S.; Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; Reformed Church in America; Roman Catholic Church; the Protestant Episcopal Church; Russian Orthodox Church of North America; Roumanian Orthodox Episcopate of America; Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church.

Over 36,000,000 pieces of preparatory literature have already been placed in the hands of pastoral leaders across the country to prepare their congregations for this great Christian demonstration on Sunday, March 27.

This inter-denominational promotion will culminate on Saturday evening with a nationwide radio program—"One Great Hour"—which will be broadcast from the churches of America by the contribution of the full networks of CBS, ABC and MBS from 10 to 11 p. m., EST 9 to 10 p. m. CST; 8 to 9 p. m. MST; 7 to 8 p. m. PST.

"One Great Hour"—written under the direction of the great playwright and author, Robert Sherwood, and by Erik Barnouw, National President of the Radio Writers' Guild—will dramatize the great need of the people in Europe and Asia for food, medicine and clothing and even more important, the great hunger of these people for the Christian faith and strength that will help them to rebuild their war-torn world.

"One Great Hour" will close with an appeal from the churches in America to the American people to go to church on Sunday morning and make there a truly sacrificial gift which will be received in the name of Christ for all humanity.

Conewango Club members present at the weekly dinner last evening were privileged to hear an impressive and outstanding address by Congressman Carroll D. Kearns, of Farrell, member of the Legislation and Labor committee. The club is to be commended for bringing Rep. Kearns to Warren and making it possible for radio listeners to hear one of his talks.

THE PRAYER IN THE GARDEN

Matthew 26:36—Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

The prayer habit of Jesus is full of suggestiveness for us, the times, places and the occasions of His prayers.

He prayed in the morning, a great while before day. He prayed in the evening after a day of exacting toil. He sometimes prayed all night.

The mountain, the desert, a friend's garden, any place that offered solitude were welcome to Him.

He prayed in all the great crises of His life, before making serious decisions as in the choosing of His Apostles, before great victories, as at the grave of Lazarus and after, as immediately following the feeding of the five thousand for He knew that the morning of victory is often more dangerous than its eve.

Here, in His supreme hour of trial, crushed under the awful weight of the sins of the world, Christ gives Himself to Prayer.

His prayer was a lonely one—

Heavy trouble usually involves two things for companionship and a call to loneliness. Christ took His disciples to the Garden with Him, but they were unable to enter into His agony and struggle. So it will be with us in the great decisions of life.

It was persevering prayer—

He went again the second time and prayed. The light did not break even then, and He prayed again the third time. Only then did the calm succeed the storm.

It was submissive prayer—

"If it be possible let this cup pass: If this cup may not pass: never the less not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

It was triumphant prayer—

Everything was won at that point—not only the Divine strengthening of His own spirit, but the atonement, resurrection, and ascension. Contrast the case of the disciples. Christ was strengthened for the cross, and triumphed gloriously; the disciples slept instead of praying and were unprepared and reaped failure.

Here And There

Potpourri: Bradford police have been advised by a bank there that a counterfeit $10 bill has been passed in that vicinity. Area merchants and residents are advised to check carefully all currency in the event that more of these counterfeit bills are circulating in the section. Drawings for the Pennsylvania Championship Spring Trials were held at the Bucktail Hotel, Marienville, Thursday night, preceding the annual spring classics which opened there this morning. A champion will either be named this year or three dogs will be declared winners in all-age staks. Provision is made for a $300 purse for a champion. That dwelling house at 105 Pennsylvania avenue, west, owned by the Bell Telephone Co., is to be vacated soon, but according to reliable information, no building project is contemplated at present.

Over in McKean county they are still talking about a bowling score rolled by Emery McElfresh, aged 17 years, who is a pun setter at the Eldred alleys. Tuesday night, when he came through with one of the top scores hit this season in that area. Rounding out his first season on the slides young Emery hit games of 213 and 233 and then finished off with a terrific 246 score to total 695, a record high for the Eldred alleys this year. The youth has an average of 188. Jack Kerr of Holly-wood, Cal., who is visiting here, Anna Lawson and Gerda Lawrence, Third avenue, has quite a reputation as a tennis player. According to our information Kerr has played with the Mexican star, Gonzales, and also appeared against Bob Falkenberg when the latter was in England. Before the war Kerr was college tennis champion until he gave up the game to join Uncle Sam's Air Force.

The DuBois Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the appearance of the U. S. Navy Band in that city May 12.

The Warren Veterans of Foreign Wars post and auxiliary are preparing an appropriate observance for the 50th anniversary of the founding of the organization, and the 26th anniversary of the chartering of the post in this city. There will be more about this important event later. Here's a paragraph from the Warren Ledger of March 23, 1883, that makes a good filler right at this time when most women folks are beginning to think about Easter eggs: "A special reporter of the Ledger was last Sunday detailed to make a true and correct report of the new spring bonnet which generally makes its appearance on Easter. His report was unnecessarily long and we have run it through the condensing machine, with the following result: It is straw. On one end of the straw is a rose and on the other a ribbon, and the whole thing cost $27. Its cost is considered by the wearer as being cheap." And here's another in the same column that we just could not pass up: "The wire foot bridge over the Conewango creek, connecting Warren with Glade, was completed the latter part of last week, and pedestrianism now competes with the ferry boats." Curtailment of oil field operations in the Kane area has resulted in peak unemployment listing with the Pennsylvania State Unemployment Service, according to Arthur Swanson, manager of the McKean county offices of the agency. He lists unemployment in the county at 1,500, highest total since the office was established. In spite of the fact that this is top kite weather, few youngsters in Warren have been observed engaging in the pastime. A good stiff March breeze sweeps the kites through the sky in thrilling fashion. Incidentally kids are warned to keep kites strictly away from high tension wires.

Signatory Powers Are Own Judges in Pact Promises

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson got right down to basic English when he unveiled the text of the proposed North Atlantic Pact. He was asked whether this treaty would impose a moral as well as a legal obligation on the United States to go to the defense of European nations attacked by an aggressor. The secretary drew a homely parallel. Suppose a man makes a contract to buy a cow for $100, he began. You could consider this entirely a legal contract. If either the buyer or the seller of the cow backed out of the contract, the other could go to court. And the judge could force the two parties to live up to their contract. Decent people carry out their contracts without going to court, the secretary went on. When decent people do live up to their contracts, it doesn't make any difference whether they do so because of their moral or their legal obligations.

If all countries were equally as decent, there would be a lot less trouble in the world, the secretary observed. But in international contracts there is no sheriff sitting on a high cloud to make nations live up to their agreements. So it's up to the nations themselves to make good on their promises, regardless of whether it's a moral or a legal obligation.

IN this North Atlantic pact, the United States, Canada, Britain, Belgium, France, Luxembourg and the Netherlands have proposed a legal contract to do certain things. They have invited Norway, Denmark, Italy, Portugal and Iceland to join them in this undertaking. If all 12 governments ratify the pact, they will have a contract to consider an armed attack on any one of them as an attack against them all.

Their contract would commit them only to consult whenever the territory, independence or security of any one of them is threatened. (Art. 4.) They leave to broad interpretation what shall be considered a threat, but they define specifically what shall be considered an armed attack. (Art. 6.)

If there is any doubt about whether any incident is a threat to the peace—if it is just a border flare-up or an entirely internal political revolution, no action need be taken. If, however, a revolution in any country is stirred up by a foreign power or if there is an all-out attack such as Germany launched against France in 1914 and 1940, then the other countries would take action.

Whatever action is taken will be decided on by the constitutional processes of each country. (Art. 11.) For the United States, this means that any decision to go to war can be taken only by Act of Congress, as provided in the U. S. Constitution. This settles for all time the great to-do made by Senator Vandenberg a few weeks ago. Each country is to be left free to judge its own course of action.

MOREOVER, any action taken under this North Atlantic pact must be in complete agreement with the United Nations Charter. (Arts. 1 and 7.) Whenever the United Nations Security Council takes jurisdiction over an armed attack and restores peace, action under the pact will be terminated. (Art. 5.)

Though the emphasis is on defensive measures to resist aggression, the pact is not just a military alliance. It calls for building up the capacity to resist attack. (Art. 3.) But it also calls for settling disputes by peaceful means, without the use of force, and for promoting "co-operation and economic co-operation." (Arts. 1 and 2.)

There will of course be some jawing over the fine points of what this pact may let the United States in for, and what it is going to cost to rearm Europe.

The State Department apparently wants all such discussion reduced to a minimum, for handing by the council itself later on, no printed text of the pact indicates it is proposed for signing in the first week of April. That leaves two weeks for debate.

Warsaw—The social "freeze" is on in Poland. Both Americans and Britishers are getting the brush-off from the Poles. Poles not only are not coming to parties, cocktail affairs and other social events organized by members of the American and British colonies. Many times they don't even trouble to answer "R.S.V.P." invitations.

The answer to anything the government doesn't want to talk about is: "We don't know anything about it. We never heard of it." That is the reply of the government's official spokesman to any inquiries about the social "cold war."

Those of the American embassy who like to entertain complain that it is not a question of setting a date and inviting Polish friends.

The social "freeze" is not confined to the Poles. Sadly lacking are contacts with the personnel of the Russian and other embassies of the "People's Democracies." Necessary official business is conducted in a suspicious, chilly atmosphere.

The social "cold war" obviously is an outgrowth of the strained international situation. No one doubts for a moment that all this would be changed if Generalissimo Stalin were to announce that permanent peace is here and relations with the United States were just dandy.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

1929

An educational and interesting series of pictures is being shown in the Blair and McNulty News Co. window on Liberty street, showing how and where the genuine Rock of Ages Barre Granite is produced.

The American Legion Auxiliary ladies were hostesses in the new Legion home when sixty tables of cards were in play. Prizes for bridge went to Mrs. Jane Baker and Charles Struble. . . . Seniors on the honor roll at the high school are Clarence A. Stanley, Danielson, Martha Gantz, Anna Greenlund, Orlatha Reardon. . . .

If no improvement is shown in the financial status of the Warren and Jamestown Railway Company, the line may be abandoned. Motor buses are providing a stiff competition for the line. . . . The Chrysler building recently built in New York is the tallest in the world, 809 feet, and has cost $15,000,000. (Nowadays that might pay for a pint-size cottage). . . . Mutt and Jeff in person are at the Library. . . . The new Willys-Knight sedan has "Finger-Tip Control," a button conveniently located in the center of the steering wheel which controls all the functions of starting the motor, operating the lights and sounding the horn without changing one's position.

Electric service in Clarendon was interrupted for about an hour when a late fell across two wires of the Pennsylvania Electric Company, causing a short circuit, and blowing two fuses at the Clarendon substation. . . . An interesting display has been arranged in the windows of the E. D. Everts Hardware company where the United Lumber and Supply company is exhibiting their collection of fifty different designs of bird houses. . . .

A Magic Chef gas range can be purchased at Metzger-Wright's for $89.50, with a free cookie tray. . . . Hitler indicated today that with the acquisition of Memel, his plans for further absorption of European territory have come to a halt. . . .

James J. Hines, a power in Tammany politics for 26 years was sentenced to four to eight years on lottery conspiracy charges. . . . Many Warrenites are making plans to attend the Gladys Swarthout concert in Erie. . . . Polka dots are making fashion headlines this spring. . . . The regular meeting of the Hatch Run PTA was called to order by Thomas Foit after which an entertainment was presented by Himes and his Stump Jumpers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Foit.

One of the largest trees known is the baobab of tropical Africa, whose stem reaches 30 feet in diameter, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

If the American host hopes at attract a Polish guest the procedure is to telephone the Pole and ask him to set the date.

The government's official spokesman says, however, that no Pole is required to get official clearance to attend any Anglo-American affair.

Nevertheless, the brush-off goes on.

Colonel Nelson Dingley, the new American military attache, invited Polish military officials to a cocktail party to meet new members of his staff. Not a single Pole showed up.

Dingley now has been waiting months to meet Marshal Michal Zymierski, minister of national defense. Commander Gerard Bogart of Scarsdale, N. Y., U. S. naval attache, has been waiting since last August for an official meeting.

American Ambassador Waldemar J. Gullman invited representatives of the entire Polish press to a "get-together" cocktail party at his home. A half-dozen came of the 60 or more invited.

The U. S. Information Service asked students and professors of political science—74 of them—to see a film on how American election machinery works. Only seven showed up, and they were not impressed.

The social "freeze" is not confined to the Poles. Sadly lacking are contacts with the personnel of the Russian and other embassies of the "People's Democracies." Necessary official business is conducted in a suspicious, chilly atmosphere.

TIPS ON TUNING

MUTUAL THE WORLD'S LARGEST NETWORK

Let's spin the dial and see what we can find in the line of new, interesting and different radio programs.

This evening at 10:00 on WNAE-FM, the Times-Mirror will bring you another press conference of the air. There are no punches pulled on this program and you'll hear 30 minutes of top informative questioning on a timely subject.

Saturday evening produces two excellent shows in a row. The Chicago Theater of the Air has been rescheduled for 9:00 to 9:55, one hour earlier than usual to make way for a special program called "One Great Hour" at 10:00 p. m. This broadcast will dramatically outline the extreme need for world relief. The dramatic portion of the program is divided into three episodes. . . The first will depict a scene in war-devastated Austria. The second will tell of the situation which today faces the Chinese family and the third will demonstrate how a European couple can successfully be absorbed into the American way of life, and how they can help further American standards of living. Gregory Peck, Ida Lupino, Robert Montgomery and other Hollywood personalities will star in this show. President Truman will be heard in the last five minutes of the broadcast. While this program will be heard simultaneously over three major networks, your best listening bet for "One Great Hour" will be over WNAE-FM. No static, no fading, no noise.

We call special attention to Sunday afternoon for two fine local musical programs. Byron Swanson will inaugurate a new series of vocal programs at 2:45 Sunday afternoon and 3:00 o'clock will bring a quarter hour broadcast by the New Process Company Choir.

If you don't already know John Nesbitt's "Passing Parade," Monday through Wednesday at 11:30 a. m., better get the habit. John Nesbitt is America's greatest story teller and his store of interesting and true tales is endless and ever compelling. You fight fans have another treat coming Monday, too. The Golden Gloves inter-city championships will be broadcast at 10:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Winston Churchill will be heard in a special broadcast over WNAE-FM Thursday evening, 9:00 to 9:55 p. m. Mr. Churchill speaking from M.I.T. will speak on "The 20th Century—its promise and its realization."

Thursday at 10:00 p. m. is the premier performance of a new and vitally different show. Taped and recorded in the Cafe de la Paix in Paris. "This Is Paris" brings the finest French talent to American audiences. Claude Dauphin is the master of ceremonies. The star of the show is the internationally famous, Maurice Chevalier. The ladies will be especially interested in an interview with one of the top Paris designers discussing the newest styles. Listen to the man in the straw hat, Maurice Chevalier, on "This Is Paris."

NETWORK PROGRAMS

Time is eastern standard. For central standard subtract one hour, for mountain standard subtract two hours. Some local stations change hour of relay to fit local schedules. Last minute program changes cannot be included.

Byron Swanson To Start Program Series On Sunday

It will be good news to a great many of his friends that Byron Swanson, widely known in Warren musical circles, will sing over Station WNAE at 2:45 p. m. Sunday in the first of a series of Sunday afternoon programs.

Swanson, a lyric tenor, will use
as his theme song for the program,
"Serenade" from Sigmund Romberg's "Student Prince". He will also sing "Strange Music" from
"Song of Norway", "Dedication" by Frantz, two Irish songs, and
"Calvary" by Rodney Miss Adelaide Swanson will play his accompaniments.

Director of the Warren Boy Choir, Mr. Swanson has been head of the voice department at the Warren Conservatory of Music for nearly five years. He is a former director of the First Methodist church choir and has done considerable solo work in various local churches.

While a student at Carthage College, Carthage, Ill., where he earned his bachelor of arts degree,
Mr. Swanson toured western states with the college choir. He later studied at the Chautauqua Summer School in New York University extension classes and has done post-graduate work with Evan Evans at the Juilliard School of Music and with other New York teachers.

Another accomplishment has been appearances with the Pittsburgh Opera Company and coaching with its director, Richard Karp, who is also program advisor for Station KDKA.

On Palm Sunday, April 10, he will sing the solo part in Stauner's beautiful oratorio, "The Crucifixion", in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Warren Boy Choir

The Warren Boy Choir, appearing in concert next Tuesday evening in McClintock school, is unique among boy choirs in that it presents the regular four-part harmony of soprano, alto, tenor and bass, thus giving a very mature sound to all its beautiful harmony. This splendid young musical organization, under the leadership of Byron Swanson, is now in its second season, with a history that is almost fantastic. A genuine love for singing, inspiration and enthusiasm derived from the community Christmas concert held in First Methodist church in 1943, were responsible for birth of the Warren Boy Choir. It was at this memorable concert that ten boys made an auspicious appearance with the large, augmented choir.

Without a sponsor, these talented boys organized the Warren Boy Choir, formed rules and regulations, and opened the membership to more boys. An interested friend provided the necessary funds for music and other essentials. Soon after, the boys were invited to sing for numerous closed events, completely captivating their audiences.

Gifts of money from individuals and organizations poured into the choir's treasury. Last June, the boys rented the high school auditorium and presented to a completely sold-out audience their first public concert—an event still lingering in the minds of those who were able to secure admission. Last Christmas found the boys giving their second public concert in Warren, appearing in an all-sacred concert sponsored by the Philomel Club in Trinity Memorial church, with a capacity audience.
Also at Christmas-time, they made their first out of town appearance, singing in Sheffield High School auditorium in a concert sponsored by the Washington Mothers Club.

The choir ordinarily meets but once a week. Over 125 boys have auditioned for this group, which has a present membership of 36. Once every six weeks, the group enjoys a social event.
Last year's officers have been reelected for another year: Robert Cowden, president; Ernst Kaebnick, vice president; John Donaldson, secretary, and Donald Smith, treasurer.

The Tuesday evening concert, which will start at eight o'clock in the school auditorium, is being sponsored by the McClintock PTA.

Fashion Show At Sheffield Next Monday

Sheffield, Mar. 26—Sheffield Girl Scouts are presenting a fashion show, "A Week With the Girl Scouts", at 8 p. m. Monday. Proceeds will be used for a fund to send local Girl Scouts to Camp Birdsall Edey for a week during the summer camping season. The public is invited and urged to support this worth while project.

A joint meeting of the Washington and Lincoln school Mothers clubs was held at the Washington school Thursday at 8:00 p. m. The Washington club has voted to become a Parent-Teacher's Association, and by-laws were read and accepted. Mrs. Leo Zandi made an announcement about the Girl Scout Fashion Show to be given Monday evening, the proceeds of which are to be used to send the Sheffield girls to Camp Birdsall
Edey this coming summer. Mrs.
E. W. Nelson made an announcement about an open house to be held at the Well Baby Clinic in April.

piano solo, "Andante" by Sibelius;

Victor" by Endresser; James

"Parachute" Mystery Is "Exploded"

Corry Journal: The mystery of the "parachute" floating over the Country Club golf course Tuesday afternoon has been partially solved.

J. H. Reagle of Columbus, employed by the local Pennsylvania
Electric Company office, explained today he had sighted what appeared to be a balloon drifting several feet off the ground along Route 6.

In describing the contraption, Reagle said the balloon was dark brown in color and about 15 feet in diameter. Suspended about 10 feet below the balloon was a red canopy and about 25 feet below that was a small box-like affair about two feet square and eight inches deep.

When last seen by Reagle the balloon was drifting in the direction of the golf course. The most plausible theory advanced was that it might have been a balloon containing weather instruments put up by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Some excitement prevailed here early in the afternoon when the first report that a flyer had parachuted out of a plane was turned in.

State Police of the local substation pointed out that the small box attached to the balloon contains weather recording instruments and urged anyone finding it to take it to the post office from where it will be returned to the Weather Bureau in Washington.

Members were reminded to grow sters and petunias as a club project this summer.

It was also announced that all members planning to attend the county club meeting at Youngsville on April 5 should contact the secretary in plenty of time for her to turn in club reservations by April 1. Those who were in attendance at the garden club party at Clarendon reported a very fine time.

Bliss Carmen. Mrs. D. H. Haggerty gave a talk on "Trees for Landscaping", spoke generally of trees and flowers and particularly of the magnolia and azalea gardens in Charleston, S. C. She showed pictures of these, also, taken during a family trip south.

Mrs. Delmas Mickelson told of "Trees of the Bible", especially the cypress and cedar, and told of some of their uses.

Plans were announced by Mrs. Paul Lindell for a tree contest, with Mrs. Richard Mannors and Mrs. Lindell serving as captains.

Lake Sewage Plan Object Of Criticism

Jamestown—A blistering attack against the Chautauqua County Lakes Navigation Bill, currently pending in the state legislature, was delivered Tuesday by Samuel C. Alessi, city corporation counsel.

In vigorous language, he described the bill, which calls for a change in the current navigation set-up so all county lakes will come under its jurisdiction, "a useless gesture, intended to mollify public clamor."

Replying to a request for his opinion on the bill from Charles D. Bretzel, legal advisor to Governor Dewey, he charged that pollution of the county lakes is being ignored.

He proposed that additions should be made to the bill, which would:

1. Make it a violation, punishable by one year imprisonment or a $500 fine, or both, for any person or corporation found guilty of allowing sewage to flow into Chautauqua, Findley, Cassadaga or Bear Lakes.

2. Place the responsibility for the control of sewage on the commission and the boards of health of the various municipalities involved.

3. Provide "aggrieved" persons with the power of injunction or other "appropriate action" to halt the flow of sewage.

Rep. Kearns discussed the proposed rent control bill, and other important measures, outlining frankly and fearlessly his position on most of the vital legislation now pending, including the proposed agitation for socialized medicine.

During his stay Rep. Kearns had an opportunity to greet many former acquaintances made in the course of his travels in his work before being elected to the house of representatives. He was introduced by S. M. McClure.

The members were so impressed with the talk delivered by the congressman that he was extended an invitation to return to Warren some time in the fall to address a ladies' night banquet, which he has promised to do.

Washington, March 25—(AP)—President Truman today accepted the resignation of Walter Bedell Smith as ambassador to Moscow. The White House announced the president's action shortly after Smith called on the president to renew his long-pending request to return to army duty.

President Truman accepted Smith's request "with great reluctance" and that he did so to permit him to return to a field command.

WOMAN GOES TO HER DEATH OVER FALLS

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 25—Authorities sought today to identify a woman who apparently went to her death over Niagara Falls.

The body of a woman, between 35 and 65 years old, was removed from the Niagara river at the Maid-of-the-Mist landing on the Canadian side yesterday. The skull and both legs were broken.

The woman was about five feet tall, grey-haired, weighed about 150 pounds and had a hole over the left eyebrow. She wore a black crepe dress and black laced oxfords.

Park reservation police reported this morning the finding of a woman's brown cloth coat with a label indicating it was purchased in Buffalo or Rochester. In a pocket of the coat, they said, was a brown striped handkerchief bearing the name "R. Burns."

Informative Statement By Hospital Board Of Trustees

The following information about the expansion program at the Warren General Hospital is submitted by the Board of Trustees:

Many people in Warren County would like an answer to the question: When will construction start to enlarge and modernize the Warren General Hospital?

Certainly every member of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital wants this question answered with a definite day and hour when the building will begin. Such a definite answer cannot be given at the present time, but at least the supporters of the Hospital can know the present status of the Building Fund, and some of the problems which the Hospital Board has faced with this project.

The campaign to raise $400,000-00 for the Building Fund, required months of preliminary work during the year 1945, including careful examinations and revision of the plans of Laurie & Green, registered architects and engineers of Harrisburg. When the active campaign closed in December, 1945, and the campaign committee reported to the Hospital Board that $400,000.00 had actually been pledged by the people and firms of this community, the Board, those who generously gave to the Building Fund, and all who are interested in having the best possible hospital in Warren, were justly proud of the result. The money was to be paid over a 2-year period, and by the time that something more than half had actually been paid, that is, by September 1946, the Hospital Board told the architects that it was time to advertise for bids for the construction.

Then the project received its first set-back, with the information that no bids could be obtained for this building project except on a cost-plus basis, due mainly to the fact that some of the necessary materials were unobtainable or practically so. As this was impossible, the Hospital Board settled down to wait until a building contract could be obtained. In the meantime, more pledges were paid up in full.

Early in 1946, with about $385,000.00 paid into the Building Fund, the architects were again urged to advertise for bids. Then came the second great blow, for the Board was told that it would cost nearly $1,000,000.00 to build according to the original plans. This was also an impossible situation, as the increase in the cost of building was too great to be raised by another campaign.

In considering the problem, the members of the Hospital Board had to decide whether to revise the plans and build what could be accomplished with the money on hand, plus what might be raised by another campaign, or to wait and try to obtain Federal funds to make up most of the difference, so that the work could be done according to the original plans. Further delay was a great disappointment, for Federal funds would not be available until 1950, and perhaps not then, but it appeared likely that not enough could be accomplished by spending what was on hand.

The cost of building appears to be going down. If it continues to go down, and if Federal money can be obtained in 1950, the delay may be justified.

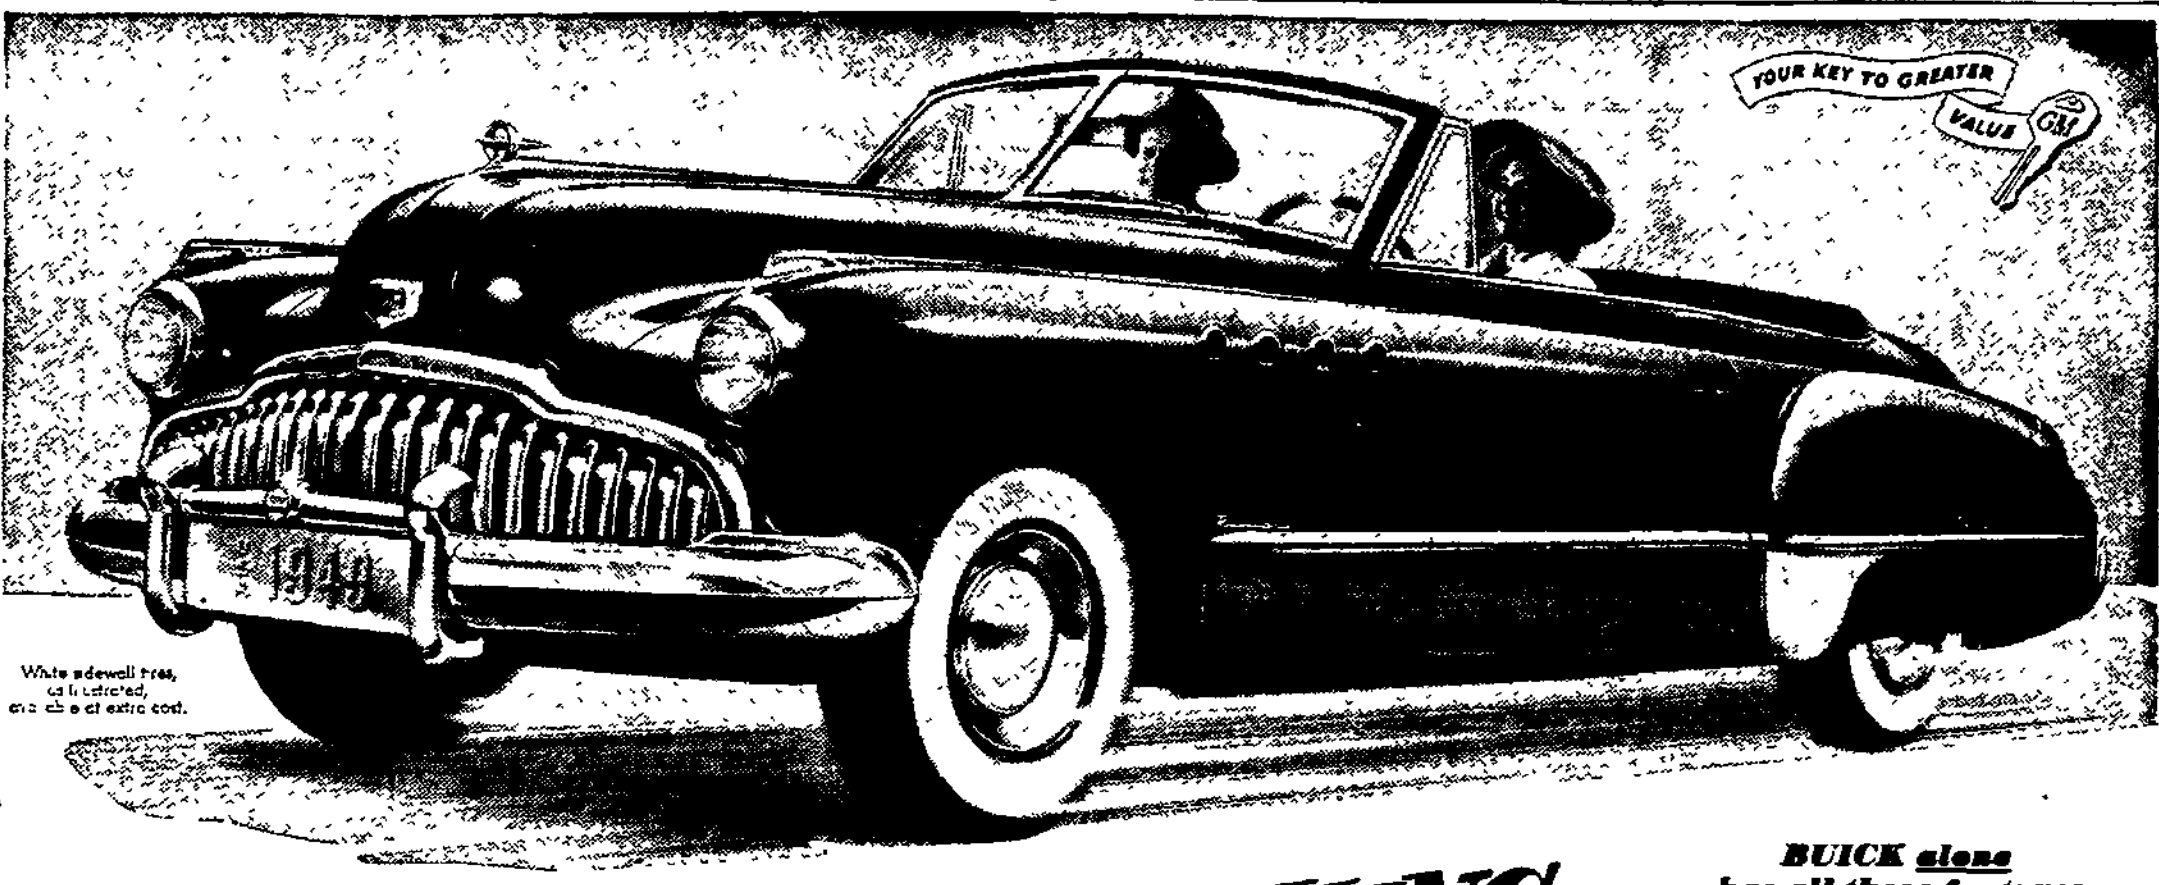

In the meantime, the Building Fund is on hand and invested in U. S. Treasury Notes. The total received as of January 31, 1949, with interest, is $398,905.75. Expenses to that date, which are chiefly architects' fees, amount to $7,416.42, leaving a balance on hand of $390,679.33. These funds could be converted into cash at once.

Not all pledges have been paid in full. Perhaps some people have been waiting to hear that the construction had begun. Perhaps they will pay the balance due when they understand the situation. In any event, the hospital has $390,679.33 invested in U. S. obligations and the Board is ready to use this money now if that appears to be the best thing to do.

In order to determine the best thing to do, the Building Fund Campaign Committee and the Hospital Board, will meet with the architects and discuss the problem from all angles. This meeting is planned for the first week in April. If a decision is reached, it will be made known to the people. If further meetings are required to solve the problem, they will be held, for the Hospital Board is determined to find a solution so that the money, generously given by the people and firms of this community, may be used to the best advantage, and that Warren may have the best hospital possible.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington—(AP)—The veterans' pension bill seems dead for this year, buried by the house. It had a dizzy funeral, one of the strangest.

Thinking of the veterans when election comes around, house members approached the bill like a man examining the teeth of a lion. One of them, unabashed, told newsmen ironically:

"This is where I rise above principle and vote political."

But another, less gay about voting for something he didn't believe in, told reporters:

"It isn't a question of whether I'm for or against the bill, but whether I want to get re-elected. So I'll have to vote for it."

In the end, he voted against it. So did a majority of the congressmen but it took them three days to take that step. They finally did it by tormenting and disfiguring the bill till its own father wouldn't know it.

In this case the father was Rep. John Rankin, Mississippi Democrat, a little man with a bright red and perpendicular white hair. Rankin, a veteran of World War I, is peppery at 67.

His bill would have given veterans of World Wars I and II a pension of $90 a month when they reached 65, whether or not they needed the money.

If the bill ever became law, government officials had warned, it would cost the country $125,000,000 in 50 years.

And, thinking of the big debt the country has already, President Truman and his leaders in congress didn't want it.

Right from the first, it seems, the house members didn't want it either but in the beginning they didn't want to say so publicly where their name and their vote against it would be on record.

Almost immediately when the bill came up Tuesday a majority of the house voted to kill it. But this was in the kind of vote where their vote was listed by number, not by name.

But, almost as fast, when they were called upon to vote by name, they voted against killing the bill. In three days they changed their vote five times.

On the second day they began to beat the bill out of shape by voting changes in it, right on the floor. By the time they were through that second day practically no one knew what had been voted into it.

And yesterday the house came back and by one vote—203 to 207—killed the bill. Not outright. The house voted to "send it back to committee." That's something like sending a body to the graveyard.

Chapter 5

"I WAS wondering whether you would remember our previous meeting," Raff said in a low tone. She laughed somewhat ruefully and stepped into her shoes.

"Rest assured, I'm not apt to forget it for a long time."

"Oh? He looked at her inquiringly. "I am sorry. It didn't occur to me that the situation was really a serious one."

"Well, it really wasn't."

"Then it was a secret sorority ritual?"

"Oh, no, that wasn't it at all." He glanced casually around the room but watched her carefully out of the corner of his eyes.

"What was it—just a lovers' quarrel?" he asked.

Her laugh rang out merrily. "Good heavens, no!"

She reached into a pocket of her dark green skirt and brought out a pack of cigarettes.

"Now that we're no longer enemies you may have a cigarette."

"Thank you. That's what I call being really friendly." He struck a match and held it to her cigarette. There was a clean, soap and water odor about her. Certainly not the type he mixed up in a murder. And yet—

"Tell me, now that we no longer are enemies," he said, "what was it all about?"

"It was really nothing," she protested. "I was just being silly."

He sighed. "Call it that. What puzzles me is why you want to make yourself out a woman of deep mystery."

"I'm really not very mysterious. There's my name on the door. 'Ellen Carter,' and I'm the secretary of the department. Which reminds me—there's anything I can do for you, Mr.—"

"Rafferty. Dennis Rafferty. I'm a surgeon at the University Hospital."

Raff laughed in spite of himself. "Score one. I guess I asked for that."

"Seriously, can I help you any?"

"I have an appointment with Dr. Bray. I knocked at his door but there was no answer. If you have no objection, Miss Carter, I'd like to wait here."

At the mention of Bray's name Ellen took on an apprehensive look.

"Of course there's no objection to your waiting here. But, Dr. Rafferty, would you mind not saying anything—Well, put it this way. It would cause no end of embarrassment if you were to mention our previous meeting to Dr. Bray. Especially—there was a crackle in her voice—"your theory of a lovers' quarrel. Honestly, it wasn't that, and if you say anything about it he is going to be terribly disturbed."

"I'm afraid I don't understand what connection does Dr. Bray have with that?"

"Oh—well, maybe you didn't see him. It was Dr. Bray I was trying to avoid that night."

Raff was perplexed. Why was she making this damaging admission? Either she was innocently naïve or she was downright clever.

"I see," he said thoughtfully. "Well, I think I can promise you that I won't mention a word of it to Dr. Bray."

"Contrary to my first impression, you're really very nice," she said.

SUDDENLY there was a loud shout from the hall. "Miss Carter!"

Ellen looked up annoyed. "That boy," she muttered. "I suppose there's one in every department."

There was the sound of heavy running feet and a boy appeared in the doorway.

"Eddie Worden, just what do you mean by shouting?" One glance at Worden and Ellen stared at him incredulously. "How do you happen to know so much about it?"

"I saw him exactly"—he glanced at his watch—"ten minutes ago."

"But you said that he wasn't there!"

"What I actually said was that there was no answer to my knock."

He was a tall, gangly youth with reddish hair. The freckles on his face seemed to dance at least a quarter of an inch in front of his skin. He appeared very agitated and his Adam's apple moved up and down quickly in his scrawny neck.

"Miss Carter," his voice was pitched high with excitement, "you'd better come here quick! Something awful has happened!"

"Now what?" It was a voice of resignation as she got up to follow him. Worden had already started down the hall.

"I went in there to use the typewriter." The fragment of sentence reached Raff's ears as he sat down in a chair. He dozed his cigarette in the ash tray and reached for the telephone. He called the hospital and asked for the morgue.

"This is Rafferty. I'm over in the Biology Department on the main campus. Will you send the wagon over? . . . Man by the name of Bray . . . Cyanide. No, a hypo . . . about ten hours ago. The body's in Room 308." He hung up. He was occupied with his own grim thoughts when he heard Ellen's shoes beating a staccato rhythm as she ran back. She was very white.

"Didn't you say you were a doctor? Would you come here, please?" she asked breathlessly.

"I don't think there is any need for a doctor," he said quietly. "Please! I'm not joking. Hurry!"

"I realize this is no joking matter. You see, he's quite dead. In fact, I'd say he's been dead for several hours."

She stared at him incredulously. "How do you happen to know so much about it?"

"I saw him exactly"—he glanced at his watch—"ten minutes ago."

No Extension On Deadline For Licenses

Advised by the Department of Revenue that there will be no extension on the deadline for the renewal of motor vehicle registrations for 1949, R. E. Maxwell, secretary-manager of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation which represents 58 AAA automobile clubs throughout the state, today passed the warning along to motorists.

"Only another week remains in which to renew motor vehicle registrations for 1949 and secure the new license plates for vehicles," Mr. Maxwell warned. "The deadline for renewal arrives next Thursday at midnight."

Pointing out that the Bureau of Motor Vehicles is at the present time faced with its tremendous task of issuing new license plates in time to meet the deadline, he said that motorists who wait until the last minute to send in their applications place an added handicap on the bureau.

"Not only will waiting until the last day or so in the current renewal period place an unnecessary hardship on employees in the Bureau of Motor Vehicles," Mr. Maxwell pointed out, "but it is reasonable to assume that those waiting until the last minute to submit their applications will be deprived of the pleasure of the use of their cars until the bureau can catch up with the stacks of applications. "Another matter that it might be well for those delaying until the last minute to keep in mind is the fact that several days are required for the delivery of tags and registration cards through the mails," he said.

"Motorists should not delay a moment longer in forwarding their applications to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles," he concluded. "Any motorist who does not have his new license tags in ample time to meet the deadline will have only himself to blame if he does not have the new plates and for that reason is forced to do without the use of his car until their arrival."

Riverview Cemetery Board Has Meeting

Corydon, Mar. 25—The board of trustees of Riverview Cemetery Association held its regular meeting at the home of the secretary-treasurer, Carl F. Laubach, with two newly-appointed members, L. J. Learn and Edwin J. Nelson, present to complete a five-member board.

Plans were discussed and approved for a clean-up program to get underway on Tuesday evening, April 5. All interested persons are asked to help, that the cemetery may be made more attractive. Any assistance or suggestions will be gratefully appreciated by the board of trustees. Incidentally we learn that back in July of 1893 a board of trustees was formed for Riverview cemetery and its members included many illustrious Corydonites. Membership during this time dropped to two or three through failure of new appointments, but a board has been in effect well over half a century.

House Witness

Steve Nelson, chairman of the western Pennsylvania Communist Party, has been subpoenaed by the House Un-American Activities Committee for questioning about an alleged industrial spy ring operated by Soviet satellite agents. Nelson figured in the committee's atom-spy investigation last fall, when he was charged with transmitting an atomic formula to Russian diplomatic officials. The new hearings are scheduled to begin April 18.

Claims Kite Flying Records

Mrs. Doris Acosta, above, a Columbus, Ohio, housewife, claims two world's female kite flying titles, even though her second attempt to set new records ended with a broken kite string. Mrs. Acosta says she has kept a kite aloft 23½ hours, and has flown one at 5000 feet—both world records. However, a Petoskey (Mich.) newspaperman—Dick Allgire, managing editor of the Petoskey Evening News—has announced he will attempt to better her endurance flying record. Allgire claims to have flown a kite for a week last summer.

Gets UN Post

The United Nations announced the appointment of Adm. Chester W. Nimitz as administrator of a plebiscite to decide whether the Indian state of Kashmir shall become part of India or Pakistan. Leaving soon for Jammu, Kashmir, the admiral will supervise the balloting among 4,000,000 inhabitants of the mountainous princely state.

Give Him the City Any Day

Snowball, a white Spitz, gets a double hug from his mistresses, eight-year-old twins Carolyn, left, and Marilyn Rogers, in Cincinnati, O. Sent to a farm in Jellico, Tenn., in March, 1948, the dog chewed through his leash after only two days of country life. Just one week short of a year later, he showed up at the door of his Cincinnati home after a 250-mile journey. This time, the twins will keep Snowball.

Men of Distinction

Hall of Famers Rex Barney, left, and Ed Head get together at Brooklyn's Vero Beach, Fla., camp. Head, now manager of Asheville of the Tri-State League, hurled no-hitter as a Dodger against the Braves in '46. The Brooks big righthander stilled the Giants' bats last season.

Kite Title Is Up in the Air

Mrs. Harry P. King of Columbus, O., points to her kite which remained in the air for 38 hours and thus bettered the "world championship housewife's kite flying record" of Mrs. Doris Acosta, also of Columbus. With Mrs. King are her children, Norman, 7 (seated); Douglas, 12, and Margaret Ellen, 3. The two boys helped her keep the kite aloft until a rain brought it down. Mrs. Acosta had previously claimed the world endurance title of 35½ hours, but she lost it to King.

'Dirtiest Ship I Ever Saw'

Two seamen examine the battered furniture in a wardroom of the Milwaukee, lend-lease cruiser recently returned to Philadelphia by the Russians. A naval doctor reported that the 7050-ton vessel, which served five years in the Russian navy, was the "dirtiest ship I ever saw." Inspectors found filthy crew quarters infested with rats and vermin.

CAMP BRIEFS

Clearwater, Fla., March 25—(P)—The Philadelphia Phillies latest exhibition game victory—a 5-4 eleven inning decision over the St. Louis Cardinals—may have proved costly. Eddie Miller, veteran second baseman, was spiked on the left ankle when he collided with Catcher Joe Garagiola in the second inning yesterday. Curt Simmons, southpaw hurler, was hit on the left shin by a drive from Eddie Sauer's bat in the ninth.

Havana, Cuba, March 25—(P)—The Philadelphia Athletics made their first air flight for a three-game series opening with Havana today. "I have flown before," said 36-year old Manager Connie Mack, "but this is the first time the Athletics have ever traveled as a group by air."

Hollywood, Calif., March 25—(P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, with a record of eight wins and two lost, apparently are making a strong bid for the championship of the Grapefruit League. The Bucs were rained out in their game against the Chicago White Sox yesterday and will face the New York Giants under the lights tonight.

Elks Bowlers Top Conewango Squad By 20-Pin Margin

Elks and Conewango club tenpin squads collided head-on in a special match last night and when the smoke of battle had cleared, the Elks were on top, 2693 to 2663.

Myron Check, anchor for the victors, blasted out a 188-199-202-589 series, while Bill Rice, leadoff for Conewango, hit for 180-212-182-574.

Match summary:

ELKS
Baldensperger	204	189
R. Check	180	163
T. Berdine	164	189
G. Grosch	147	201
M. Check	188	199

Totals 853 946 894

Match score—2693.

CONEWANGO

Rice	180	212
H. Culbertson	187	193
Lutz	157	155
N. Culbertson	162	219
R. Smith	165	198

Totals 851 977 835

Match score—2663.

Harry Wooster slammed out a nifty 213-212-202-527 series and Penn slides last night to enable Elks' Paints to plaster a 3-1 defeat on Sherwood Refiners in Commercial League firing. Other top scorers for the evening included Red Farr with 135-209-255-599 for Times Square; Dan Zaprowski with 161-231-195-587 for Penelec; and Barney Senger with 183-207-185-585 for Muchas.

Muchas hold the lead in this circuit with a 31-13 record, but the Templeton Morticians are hot on their heels with a 30-14 showing.

New Process Mailers inched into a slight lead in the Men's Minor tenpin league race by topping Carlson's Olds, 3-1, on Penn lanes last night. Miller's Confectioners, last week's leaders, dropped into a close second when the New Process Receivers staged an uprising and forced the Confectioners into an even split. Best three-game series of the evening was credited to Chuck Valentine, of the Metropolitan Insurance squad, who hit for 159-202-192-552.

J. Kifer, toeling the line for Warren Plastics in the Shop tenpin league on Arcade lanes last night, spilled the maples for a 181-181-177-539 series, while W. V. Lohmes, anchor for Thomas Coupling was just a step behind with 179-188-170-537. The Coupling squad racked up a nifty 2522 team aggregate.

J. Waples, anchor for Warren Neon Signs, racked up a 561 total (181-180-210) in Moose Club tenpin league firing last night, but his team dropped three of the four match points to Schaeffer's Electric. In a second tilt, Darling Jewelers topped South Side Market by the same score. Team scoring:

Schaeffers 831 865 831-2527

Neon Signs 768 810 837-2415

Darlings 789 810 721-2820

S. S. Market 722 782 738-2242

Overlooked from Wednesday night's firing were Morelli's 199-191-200-599 series for Elliotts in the Conewango Club tenpin wheel, and H. Yeagle's 193-176-229-598 total for the Lions in Moose Mixed Tenpin League action. Match results for the latter loop were: Lions 4, Badgers 0; Wolves 4, Bears 0; Tigers 3, Cougars 1; Foxes 3, Panthers 1.

Dixie Walker Leads Buccos In Hitting

Hollywood, Calif., March 25—(P)—The old man with the scythe apparently hasn't done any harm to Dixie Walker as a hitter.

Even though Walker, now nearing 39, got to training camp 10 days late, he is top man among the three Pittsburgh Pirates who are slapping the apple at a .400 clip or better.

Dixie was going strong when the 1948 season finished—he was leading the club with a mark of .316. He didn't let up over the winter. With 10 of the 34 exhibition games out of the way, he has banged out eight base hits in 19 trips for an average of .421.

Only player threatening Walker's No. 1 spot at the moment is Eddie Fitzgerald, who is giving Clyde McCullough a tough rattle for the first-string catcher's job. Eddie has clicked five times in 12 for a .417 average. Manager Bill Meyer says he thinks Eddie the most improved player on the club.

Wally Westlake, who figures this is the year he is going to fulfill his friends' high hopes, has got eight in 20 for an even .400. He has one home run and is especially proud of it. It was the blow that clipped the World Champion Cleveland Indians, 2-1.

And if you're casting a handicapper's eye over the Buc blasters, you'd better take note of Les Fleming, who has been the club's big sieve gun to date. Stubby Les, first sacker from Indianapolis, has driven in 10 runs with an equal number of pokes.

Mixing Baseball and Football Cost Yanks Phenomenal Dropo

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

SARASOTA, Fla.—(NEA)—The All-America Conference has been a financial headache to the Yankees ever since the firm of Webb, Topping and MacPhail decided to make a package job of baseball and football.

And the new football league, which is rapidly becoming an old pain in the neck to those sending good money after bad, will swat Del Webb and Dan Topping in another direction if it turns out that all six feet five inches and 215 pounds of Walter Dropo can swat an outside curve.

And there is no good reason why the large Connecticut alumnus cannot. He already appears to have all the answers in the field, is remarkably agile for one of his dimensions.

At a time when the Yankees are searching desperately for a first baseman, the Red Sox are merely trying out one who easily could be a potential home-run champion.

And the erstwhile Bumpers might now have Dropo—pronounced Droe-po—had not in June of 1947 Larry MacPhail offered the young giant a joint baseball and football contract. Dropo didn't come cheaply, you see. The affluent Phillies were bidding, too, and MacPhail, then general manager, sought to protect his bonus by tying up his quarry both ways.

DROPO is an all-around athlete, understand. He stuck out in baseball and football also, to such an extent in the latter sport as an end that he was the number one draft choice of the big and bad Chicago Bears no less.

The Atlanta Crackers and the Chicago Cardinals joined hands in rolling baseball and football into one to beat the New York Americans to Charley Trippi along about the same time, which probably gave the fiery MacPhail the idea. Anyhow, the Cardinals wound up with the great Georgia tailback, who quickly discovered that the games don't mix.

"Jack White, then the football Yankees' line coach, made the proposition to me," reveals Dropo, a personable and articulate Slav of 26 with hands like hams.

"I had decided to play baseball. It's a much easier way of making a living, and you last longer."

If Walt Dropo, a right-hand hitter, picks up where he left off last fall, he'll make a shambles out of that friendly left field net at Fenway Park.

That would send versatile Bill Goodman to right, and consolidate the Sox outfield.

And Messrs. Webb and Topping and the Yankees will kick themselves in the trousers for some years to come for becoming football-minded in the baseball business.
